The two looziest played games seen on the Athletic Park in the Oahu League series this year were put up yesterday, when P. A. C. won from the Stars 5-4 and Hawaii beat J. A. C. 8-1.

At times the playing of the teams was brilliant in the extreme, and then in the next inning everything would fly to pieces and plays would be made that bridged no excuse.

First Game.

In the first game everyone who has followed the teams this year picked the Stars to win from the Portuguese easily. It was just the other way, though, and although the Portuguese played an errorless game, they could beat the Stars only one run, when the latter had eight errors to their credit.

Time after time the Stars pulled themselves out of a hole by brilliant work and then they would fall back again to sloppy playing.

In the fourth the Stars killed two men at the plate after they had worked their way around on errors and bunt playing. In the fifth they had one Portuguese out, the bases full and made a single and double, pulling themselves out of a bad hole.

Then in the sixth they went right the other way. With two men out, two strikes and one ball on the third man up, Hayes walked him. The two following came up and got hits, scoring the first man. That was about the worst thing the Stars had to their credit for the day.

Barney lost a chance to make first in the seventh, for he did not try to run when he could have beaten the ball out, as Flizer fumbled the ball at first on a throw from Bushnell.

Brilliant playing was done by the Stars in the eighth, when they scored two men after there were two out.

Ah Toon was up first and went out on a hit; Kan Yen flew out to Olinos. Then Fernandez came to the bat and with a three-bagger scored Hayes and in part evened things up for the three errors he made during the game. Miller came along with a hit and scored Fernandez, and Ah Tin went out on a fly to Ornelas.

The other two scores made by the Stars were in the fifth inning, when things started off by Sumner and Joy getting walks from Pedro. Hoopl got a hit and Sumner and Joy scored. Hoopl got out at third and then Ah Toon and Hayes went out, Ah Toon making a sacrifice that scored Joy.

The Portuguese made their five scores in three innings, two in the third, one in the sixth and two in the seventh. In the sixth and first man up in the third and got to first on an error by Ah Tin in fielding the ball. Flizer sacrificed, advancing Joseph; Sousa came up with a hit, went to second, and Joseph scored on an error by Hoopl. Du Rego went out to Miller to Fernandez. Pedro made a hit and scored Sousa. Bushnell went to first on an error by Fernandez, and Pedro was put out, Ah Tin to Joy.

In the sixth they scored another run after two men were out, Olinos going down Kan Yen to Fernandez, and Madeira striking out. Ornelas walked, Joseph got a hit, Flizer made a hit scoring Ornelas, and Sousa went down Kan Yen to Fernandez.

It was in the seventh that the last two scores were made by the Portuguese. Du Rego went out on a fly to Sumner. Pedro went to first on an error by Kan Yen. Bushnell made a hit. Olinos made a hit scoring Pedro, Madeira sacrificed and brought Bushnell home.

and Ornelas went down on a fly to Ah Toon.

Second Game.

The first game of the afternoon was bad enough, but the second was worse for loose playing and more one-sided in the result, when the leaders of the league went down to defeat 8-1.

Part of the result—indeed, considerable of it—could be laid to Espinda, in the box, for although he had great speed, his control was bad and at times he changed his mind, making bunts in which men were advanced on bases, and on one occasion a score came in on this account.

Then in the sixth Walker, in center field, ran into Chillingworth after Chillingworth had caught a high fly from Dreier and had it safe in his hands, but the impact of Walker's body was great that it threw him to the ground and made him drop the ball.

No one player on the Japanese team made more than one error, but the total went up to five, while Hawaii had but one, and that made by Markham at third.

The only inning in which the Japanese scored was the third, Espinda striking out and Walker going to first by being hit. Chillingworth went out on a high foul to Lota. Akana made a hit and Walker scored, Franco hit and Akana was put out at the plate from first.

Four innings there were in which Hawaii brought men over the plate, starting off with two in the first and one in the second, and then not scoring again until the fifth.

In the first Rice walked, Bill Desha sacrificed, Kuall walked; Hamauku went to first, forcing Kuall out at second, and Rice scored. Raphael went down by being hit, Hamauku scored, and Dreier went to first on fielder's choice, by which Raphael was put out at second.

In the second McIntyre led off with a three-bagger, Markham struck out, Lota walked, McIntyre scored on Rice's sacrifice, and Bill Desha flew out to short.

Lota led off with a hit in the fifth, Rice walked, Bill Desha made a hit and scored Lota. Rice was put out at the plate, Kuall made a hit and Desha scored, and Hamauku and Raphael struck out.

Three runs were made by Hawaii in the seventh, Lota, Rice and Kuall scoring. Lota made a hit, and Rice got to first on an error by Franco, while Lota scored on the same error. Bill Desha sacrificed, Kuall went down and around on a wild throw by Chillingworth and scored when Hamauku went to first on an error by Akana. Hamauku was put out at second on a double which got Raphael at first.

Mixed doubles championship tournament in tennis starts this afternoon on Beretania courts. The teams entered for the tournament are as follows: Theodore Richards and Miss Ruth Richards, D. W. Anderson and Miss Kelly, Will Roth and Mrs. Richard Ivers, A. L. Castle and Miss A. Nother.

There is absolutely no excuse for the first game on Sunday afternoon not starting at 1:30 as advertised. The fans don't care about sitting around for half an hour and watching men warm up or see no players at all for twenty minutes of that time.

It is up to all the players on the four teams to get down to some harder work this week and not put up such an exhibition of loose playing as they did yesterday. A few games like these will do much to hurt the attendance.

Eddie Fernandez with his three-bagger in the eighth did something to redeem himself for the error he had made during the game. Hilo does not agree with Fernandez, evidently.

Rooting is all right but Soap Box carries it altogether too far sometimes. There is decency in all things, and there is no need for one fan to be in the twilight all the afternoon.

WAILUKU HAS NOW ACCEPTED

Kalihi Girls Will Have the Basketball Game They Challenged For.

No more need the Kalihi girls pine for someone to accept their basketball challenge, for over at Wailuku the girls' team has agreed to meet them at any time within a month on the Valley, Isle and they over there promise kindly treatment.

The Wailuku girls, or their backers, are sure that they can beat the Honolulu Team most easily, according to reports which reached the Bulletin today.

Over at Wailuku an enthusiastic fan took his pen in hand and wrote the following in praise of the girls' team there:

The Wailuku girls have accepted the challenge of the Kalihi girls for a friendly game of basketball to be played at the new Wailuku gymnasium within a month. When the challenge came the Wailuku girls did not hesitate to accept it for Wailuku girls have never been known to pause at any undertaking, no matter how hazardous. But as to playing basketball with the Honolulu girls there is no reason to pause at all for the home girls take to it as ducks take to water, and the only difference is that our girls never take water at all.

And why should they? Do they not represent the flower of Honolulu institutions of learning where they learned all the intricacies of the game? Yes, and more than that, for they have never known defeat except among themselves when they appeared at their first exhibition game at the opening of the gym a month ago.

When the immense audience witnessed the girls at play on that initial night and saw them dash back and forth on the floor, and sometimes in the air, like true Amazons, Maui is willing to back its home team against all invaders and would take them to the ends of the earth too if no challengers are found within its gates.

Come ye Kalihi girls, though your motto may be "Kilohana" or invincibles. Wailuku has for their motto Kamehameha's exhortation of "Onward" to his battle-scarred veterans when he landed with his men on the Paukukalo beach a century ago, but with the outcome reversed. The Wailuku girls will see that the visitors are tenderly cared for.

The two scores made by Hawaii in the first inning were both on wild pitches by Espinda. He did not seem to have any control over the ball during that first inning.

Motorcycle races in Honolulu will be run under the rules of Amateur Athletic Union, according to the decision reached by the riders at a meeting Saturday night.

There was no excuse for Walker making that run into Chillingworth and causing the latter to drop a good catch to say nothing of hurting both men to some extent.

Sam Chillingworth had a bad eye when he was inside the diamond during the first game. During the latter part of the game he improved however.

The rain made it disagreeable for the spectators at the games yesterday and the high wind was bad for the fielders judging balls in the air.

McIntyre made the first hit in the game on Tuesday for Hawaii and his three-bagger in the second yesterday was the first hit for the team.
